Subject:-Distribution of seasonal uniforms among both the permanent and temporary sanitation workers.

ORDER

In order to redress the demand of sanitation workers, Directorate has timely releases adequate funds in favour of all ULBs every year for purchase of summer and winter uniforms for further distribution among sanitation workers. The purpose behind distribution of uniform among the sanitation workers is that dress code is necessary for inculcating the spirit of discipline and identity. Besides, people can easily judge that the sanitation person are the employees of ULBs. But, it has been observed that till date no dress code is observed in ULBs for sanitation workers despite sufficient release of funds.

Therefore, all the Chief Executive Officers and Executive Officers are hereby directed to immediately procure the uniform through GEM portal and distribute among the sanitation workers of each ULB. The uniform must depict name of ULB and name of the sanitation worker.

The process for distribution of uniform to sanitation workers should be completed within fortnight positively and if any sanitation worker found without uniform, the concerned CEOs/ EOs shall take disciplinary action against sanitation workers to whom uniforms are distributed by the ULBs.

Non compliance of instructions will be viewed seriously and action well be taken against CEOs/ EOs not implementing the dress code while on duty.
